

Join Wake System of Care, the Wake County Community Collaborative for Children and Families, and Alliance Behavioral Healthcare in supporting Children's Mental Health Awareness at the

COMMUNITY CARES FAIR

MAY 18 at 6:00PM-7:30PM at Marbles Kid's Museum, 201 East Hargett Street

- Learn more about programs, services, and supports from organizations that work with children and families
- FREE Arts & Crafts
- FREE entry into the museum galleries between 6pm-7pm (children under 16 must be accompanied by an adult)
- Visit from Mental Health man

Parking in metered spaces on the street is FREE after 5pm. Parking in the Wilmington Street Parking Deck across Blount Street is free for the first 15 minutes, then it is $1 for every 30 minutes between 7am-7pm. The parking lot behind Marbles is a pay station lot that is not owned by Marbles; the owner of the lot may tow non-paying customers.

Find out more at marbleskidsmuseum.org/directions

Special Thanks:

Discount School Supply, Hope Services, Purple Door Mission, Ali Cat Toys, Carolina Portrait Pros and Methodist Home for Children

Be Sure to Support Children's Mental Health Awareness and Wear Green on Thursday, May 4th!